

Ram Dass Audio Collection: A Collection of Three Ram Dass Favorites--Conscious Aging, The Path of Service, and Cultivating the Heart of Compassion

Ram Dass—the teacher and writer who spent over a quarter of a century translating Eastern spirituality in terms that Westerners can understand. His books have sold over 3 million copies. Los Angeles Times Beginning with his controversial psychedelic research at Harvard in the sixties, the life of Ram Dass has served as an experiment in truth, encompassing paths from both East and West, and shaping the spiritual landscape of America like no other teacher of our time. After three decades, and despite a life-threatening stroke, Ram Dass continues to move us with his example of compassion in action, and the true joy that comes with living in the present. Now, in a unique audio publishing event, the great moments—and great truths—of this important spiritual elder's long career are preserved together for the first time on The Ram Audio Collection. Join the bestselling author of such spiritual classics as Be Here Now and How Can I Help? for three life-changing sessions including: Conscious Aging. Ram Dass calls for us to move beyond our youth-fixated culture, to see that the final years of life are the culmination of our spiritual journey. The Path of Service. In our era of individualism, Ram Dass teaches, the path to internal freedom still begins with external action, in the service of others. Cultivating the Heart of Compassion. Ram Dass shows how to experience your life as a remarkable spiritual curriculum, through trust in your own loving heart.
