

Something Real (Fortunate Book 2)

Jemma Peeters knows exactly what she wants out of life, right down to the very last detail. She has it all planned out the perfect career, the perfect husband, the perfect family. Its going to be...well, perfect. She knows how she wants things, and even how her perfect man will be. Reid Padin is NOT it. Hes dangerously sexy and annoyingly arrogant. He smokes too much, drinks too much and drives his stupid motorcycle way too fast. He curses like a sailor and goes through so many women he cant even remember their names. Hes wrong for her in every way. So why cant she stay away from him? When Jemma accidentally stumbles into the tattoo shop where Reid works, an unlikely friendship is born. Hell give her freedom, hell make her feel things shes never felt before, hell show her that shes just as flawed as anyone else. Soon, lines are crossed, boundaries are obliterated and Jemma learns that a persons imperfections are kind of what makes them perfect. He wants her, she wants him, and only her stubbornness will stand in their way.

That said - I loved this book too as too much grit isnt always nice like 3 years .. Honestly I waited for the other foot to drop in this story and something major happen with the unforbidden.
