

Christmas in Tuscany (Christmas Romance-Italy) (Volume 3)

What's pleasure without a mix of business? That's how Erika thinks and that's how she succeeds. Erika Mason is a workaholic. She admits it. But when her boss offers her a trip of a lifetime instead of her regular bonus, she books a wine tour in Tuscany. He makes her promise it's for pleasure and not business. But Erika has studied the Tuscan Christmas markets and with her new wine shop paired with chocolates; it's exactly where she needs to go. Then she meets her tour guide, Massimo Conte. His delicious chocolate brown eyes enriched with his Italian accent takes business out of her equation. After one passionate night Erika wonders if she's been a fool. Massimo confesses of his drunken night the month before at his brother's hotel with a woman he doesn't love. She's announced she's pregnant. Two people fall in love. Two others have fooled them into believing the pregnant woman. A family affair interrupts Christmas plans. Until one mother is determined to uncover which brother is actually the father so she can mend broken hearts and set the table for Christmas.
