

A North So True: A Near & Far Novel

Cold climate, hot hero...aromatic, snow-kissed escape with a twist of mystery, adventure, and Scandinavian wildness. Love has its own latitude. Zoe Baileys transient childhood left her with a passport full of stamps, an ambiguous accent, and nowhere to call home. And as a grown-up, her career at a relentlessly slick London PR firm has been half-hearted at best - until she travels on assignment to Lillavik as a not-quite-legit wildlife volunteer. The tiny Swedish village holds a smorgasbord of secrets...and Jakob Westermark. Aloof and wild, like the wolves he studies, Jakob has good reason for keeping his distance. But its cold, hes hot, and the temptation to mix pleasure with business is too strong for Zoe to resist. Then Jakobs wolves are threatened, and suspicion turns her way. With more to lose than she ever imagined, Zoe sets out to untangle the hidden threads running through Lillavik...and maybe, finally, find her own true north.
