THE ANTICHRIST THE HOLY BIBLE:

13TH CHAPTER OF THE BOOK OF REVELATION Revelation 13 King

James Version (KJV) 13 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. 4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast:

and they worshipped the beast, saying,

Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. 12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. 13

And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, 14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. 15

And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: 17

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six. I am pleased to proclaim the Arrival of the Antichrist, - Ibrahim the Beast, a Sign of the Hour. The Antichrist is a Christian concept based on interpretation of passages in the New Testament. In traditional Christian belief, Jesus the Messiah appears in his Second Coming to Earth, to face the emergence of the Antichrist figure. The Christians further interpreted the term Antichrist as a Man of Sin, [identified with Caligula, [43] Nero, [44] and the end times Antichrist.]; Several American evangelical and fundamentalist theologians, including Cyrus Scofield, have identified the Antichrist as being in league with (or the same as) several figures in the Book of Revelation including the Dragon (or Serpent), the Beast, the False Prophet, and the Whore of Babylon. [46] In the dualist approach, Satan will become incarnate in the Antichrist, just as God became incarnate in Jesus. Or, the Antichrist is a human figure inhabited by Satan, since the latter's power is not to be seen as equivalent to Gods. [41] The Antichrist was understood by the medieval commentators more readily identified the figure of the Beast of Revelation as a personal Antichrist as opposed to Satan. The term Antichrist has different connotations in Mormonism, Judaism and even the Muslims seem to equate the Antichrist with Masih ad-Dajjal. In Christian eschatology, Preterism, Historicism, Futurism, Idealism are approaches that arose from the study of Christianity's most central eschatological document, the Book of Revelation, but the principles embodied in them can be applied to all prophecy in the Bible.
