

An Unsuitable Husband

Theresa Chartley has no time for marriage, and no room for disappointment--especially with French soccer player Emile Renaud. Sure, hes gorgeous, but hes wrong for a career woman like Theresa. If only her mother would stop pressuring her to get married and let her live her own life. Finding a very unsuitable husband to shock her parents into silence and put an end to the marriage campaign is the only answer. Emile will do just fine. Theras outrageous proposal is the answer to Emiles problem. Theyre complete opposites living in different worlds, but a fake marriage will let him ditch his clingy ex once and for all. Then hell be free of commitment and free to live his life the way he wants to. A contract. Twelve months. And they walk away scot-free. But a year of marriage tests them both in unimaginable ways. Maybe Emile isnt unsuitable after all, but how can Theresa let herself love him when she signed a contract to let him go?
