15 Real Life Angel Stories in the News: Global Evidence of Angelic Assistance (ebook) Since the beginning of recorded history, it seems that angels have been among us. It's easy, even tempting to simply write it all off as superstition, fairy tales, religious fervor and the always active imagination of fallible human beings. However, there is no denying that encounters, sightings and unexpected appearances of winged beings stubbornly refuse to go away - from the ancient past, right up to our present day. Whilst angel stories which circulate provide a sense of comfort and inspiration, there is always a part of us which requires more evidence, more proof...our brain is simply wired this way. As many are aware, the study of angels reached a level of great interest through the Dark Ages and the later period of Enlightenment and Renaissance. But now we're going to fast-forward in these pages to look at stories of angels and angel encounters in more modern times and in many instances reported in the world's press, thus providing much of the social proof which we may seek. These 15 Angel Stories have been researched and reported in the following publications: 1. The National Tribune - George Washington's Angel 2. The St. Louis Post Dispatch - The Butterfly Angels 3. The Indianapolis Star - The Wingless Angel of Boltana 4. Rosebush Minnesota Weekly - A Wandering Vagabond 5. The London Evening News - The Angels of Mons 6.
