

This Christmas present gives a whole new meaning to the term bringing joy to the holiday season. Dr. Darian Black is Playtime Industries' brilliant A.I. engineer and the creator of the Orgasmatron 6000, an adult entertainment android of incomparable beauty and skill. Incredibly intelligent and arrogant, Black is long overdue for a lesson in humility. Kiana is his perfect creation. She is beautiful, insatiable...and malfunctioning. And then there is 6-E, Dr. Black's personal computer. She is sentient, as intelligent as he is...and very very angry with him. When Kiana goes in search of the ultimate orgasm the city isn't safe. Because if she experiences a multiple orgasm she will detonate -- and take a large chunk of the city with her. Only one person can stop her, and Dr. Black's computer isn't playing ball. At all. Christmas is a time for miracles. Just hope that Santa's on his way. Author note: this holiday short story is full of cheeky and sexy sci-fi futuristic adventure suitable for mature audience only.
