

Billionaire Werebear, John Brinks, appeared to have it all. He worked hard, built a multi-billion dollar company from the ground up, and far surpassed his goals for financial success. But at thirty-six, all the money in the world couldn't fill his desolate heart and buy him the family he so desired. A loving wife and cubs are all that's missing now, and he's desperate to find them. Chelsey Blackstone is a curvy BBW with a big heart and a warm smile. At twenty-eight, she has a good job and a boat-load of friends who cherish her. But her maternal clock is ticking away, and all the acquaintances in the world can't give her the husband and house full of children she so eagerly yearns for. She knows she has a lot to offer a man—if only she was given the opportunity. So when a chance encounter brings the two strangers together, it's love at first sight, and a happy, fulfilling marriage appears imminent to both. But devastatingly, a jealous woman takes advantage of an inopportune phone call and leaves their budding relationship in ruins. How could such a wonderful beginning go so terribly wrong? And how could Fate be so cruel? Will the two star-crossed lovers give up without a fight? Or does Providence have a secret plan to bring them back together?
