

Benita's Dream (Texas Hearts Book 5)

She will allow no man to distract her from the dream she is intent on possessing  Though Miguel is not actively looking for a mother for his eight-year-old daughter, he is also not against the idea. When he finds himself attracted to a woman who rejects faith in God as strongly as he embraces it, he decides he is willing to take on the challenge. Benita, however, has other plans. She distrusts men, and with good reason. Besides, she has a dream she aims to fulfill, and to get involved with a man would take her off track. Little does she know that her dream can easily come to fruition, if she would only open her heart to the only One who can heal it This inspirational romance novel is book five in Emily Josephines series, Texas Hearts. Read on for what reviewers have had to say about her inspirational fiction...

ACCLAIM FOR EMILY JOSEPHINES INSPIRATIONAL FICTION Emily puts the romance back in romance. Heart-gripping. Great story! I look forward to reading more from this author.
