

Natalie Danvers lives a picture-perfect life. She has a great boyfriend, a good job she loves, and friends aplenty. But to her, she feels as if she's merely existing. Something indefinable is missing, which colors every aspect of her life. When she tumbles head first through a dimensional tear—straight onto a fae lord's lap—her ordinary life is shaken to the core. Handsome and mysterious, Lorh frustrates her even as he entralls her. He insists she is stuck in the land of TirAnn for three weeks and only she can discover the reasons behind her appearance there. Lorh and his siblings have been awaiting Natalie's arrival for centuries. Now she's in his arms, and his family's dearest desire is within reach. But as forgotten memories resurface and collide with reason, will Natalie find what she's been missing? Or will old enemies destroy any chance of her being the fae lord's lady? *This title was originally published as Through the Rabbit Hole and has now been revised and expanded.*
