

In her wildest dreams, Honor Snowhill—a sassy, sharp-tongued socialite—never imagines her parents would send her away to a weight-reduction ranch. So, along with her clothes, she packs a bad attitude and a secret that will leave her snooty mother reeling in her Louboutin heels. Unfortunately, there is nothing in her suitcases to help her deal with the sexy, smooth-talking, tuxedo-wearing rancher—Maxwell London. She only has her wits, charm and humor which she gladly wields as weapons against him. When it's all said and done, can Honor and Maxwell lose emotional baggage while gaining something extraordinarily special? Or will they simply kill each other on day one?
