Book three of The Hunger Trained to be a courtesan for the vampire elite, Lucy Drake is finally free...and dying from the effects of being a blood slave. The vampire responsible continues to collect humans, discarding them at will. Vowing revenge, Lucy is determined to see him meet his end before she meets hers. A mercenary by trade, battle-scarred vampire Victor Collins usually refuses to work with humans. But when Lucy approaches him for help, his attraction to her is more than he is able to resist. He agrees to help her with her mission - for a price that has nothing to do with money. And he must stop her from discovering his own dangerous duty.... As Victor teaches Lucy to take out her enemy, their heated training sessions lead to passionate exchanges far beyond their original deal.
