

Bad Potions: Charmed in Vegas

Gambling with magic, betting on love. Welcome to Charmed in Vegas! A witch on a hit list and a cursed elf in sin city, their hearts and lives on the line. Witch-in-training Marion fled to Vegas to escape being murdered. She's counting on the wards of Vegas to protect her until she can learn the magic to do it herself. Except her love potions keep exploding, and if she can't fix them, she'll never control the defense magic that will keep her safe. The last thing she wants to do is fall in love, but that might be the only fix for her bad potions. Elf Aidan thought Vegas would be the place to break his curse and win his way back into the Fairy Queens honor guard, but it's not turning out to be so easy. When he meets Marion, he realizes she might be just what he needs to get rid of his curse. But her would-be murderer has found her, and Aidan will have to protect her or lose his only chance at escaping the curse. Aidan knows exactly what to do to keep Marion alive, but what he isn't prepared for is falling in love. And how that will royally piss off his Queen. Warning: This story includes foul-mouthed pixies in Elvis jumpsuits, sexy sirens, big-hearted giants, shapeshifting as a weight loss method, steamy sex scenes and all bets on love win big.
