

Cyber Crime Series

Closure Gripping FBI Crime Agent Jessica Resarios compulsion to protect teens from online predators only puts her life into the hands of a serial killer. Old ghosts, secrets and an inevitable attraction to her boss, Tom, send her on an emotional roller coaster. Jess has mysteries of the past to solve and a serial killer to catch. Perhaps then she can confess her love Forbidden In this sequel to Closure, Agent Jessica Resario continues to deliver spine-chilling seminars about internet predators. A seminar one night introduces her to the Bennetts. They believe their teenage daughter has a stalker and is in danger. One desperate man forbids Jess to love another man. Another desperate man preys on a naive teen. Both put Jess back in the line of fire and once again her life is put into the hands of a serial killer. Obsessed The FBI cybercrime series continues after Jess shoots Trevor Marshall in her kitchen. The man responsible for three murdered teens in the Bay area, her parents and her adopted daughters parents. Ten years before he stalked her without her knowledge. Her father kept it from her to protect her and sent her to the west coast for college. Marshall murdered her parents in his attempt to find her. Ten years later hes successful but Jess is a compelled FBI profiler who hunts internet predators. SSA Jessica Resario thought her life had settled; now theres more at stake. She stepped down as the teams leader to be with her family and SA Mike Turner is promoted. A postcard shows up on her doorstep with the same three words used by Marshall - I Crave You. Mike promises to discover how it was leaked from the sealed case. When another postcard turns up at Jesss beach house, Mike takes the team to the east coast. Only half the team makes it to the beach house. Old ghosts, secrets and with more at stake; Jess is determined to end this obsession and protect her family.
