DISCLAIMER: My stories are fun, sexy, erotic, naughty, comedic, highly inappropriate pieces of fiction. They are not masterpieces of literature. Often, vapid, vain, unbelievable, two-dimensional and fictional characters are portrayed. As hard as I try, and there will always be errors. Im an Indie author and I try to put out the best product possible, but if you expect perfection in grammar and punctuation, this title is not for you. My stories are the most unique you will ever read, but there will always be easily found imperfection in everything I do. If you find offense in politically incorrect dialog, terribly naughty language, and obscene situations, then again, this is not a read for you. No grammar Nazis, no prudes; no humans below the age of 18. This is a work of fiction and the author is unapologetic about its tasteless content or the few errors you will certainly find. None of the characters portrayed are remotely close to anyone in real life; living or dead. Werewolves, Demons, the world of the Fae, or immortal nymphomaniac aliens, DO NOT exist. Please have fun and enjoy.
