

After growing up the laughing stock of the town drunk and humiliated by the hottest guy in school, Kennedy Wolfe planned on never stepping foot in Greece, New York again. Now a highly decorated agent for the FBI, Kennedy learns of the abduction of her best friend from high school. The news comes just days after the invitation to her class reunion was received and tossed. Despite her better judgment, she can't resist the urge to take on a case that would show her classmates once and for all what she's really made of. Damon Divine is the unbeatable District Attorney and he's dead set on finding those responsible for abducting his twin sister. But when the beautiful Agent Wolfe comes to town, he knows the kidnapers won't be the only ones on her hit list. After all, standing up a girl on senior prom night is not something she's likely forgotten.
