

Cayson is livid with Skye for what she's done. It's not something small that can be swept under the rug. It's not something he can just let go. What she did was unforgivable and wrong on so many levels. But he can't deny the truth. He still loves her. But will it be enough? Silke gets tired of dealing with Arsen and his insecurities. Every step they take forward, they take eight backwards. But she has faith in him that he'll change his ways. But how long can she hold onto that belief? Conrad loves the close relationship he has with Beatrice. But he can't deny he wants more. He doesn't just want to be her friend. He wants all of her, every night, until the sun burns out. When he gives into his need, he kisses her like he's always wanted. She returns the embrace and gives Conrad exactly what he wants. But where will it lead? Theo and Alex love their new relationship. Sparks fly as kisses are shared, and Theo begins to question his sanity. How could he not have fallen for her in the beginning? As things heat up, their relationship takes an unexpected direction. Then Alex does something Theo is unsure he can forgive. Book Eight of the Forever and Ever Series.
