Whats a guy to do when he comes home to stay and the girl he wants cant wait to leave town? On April 24, 1962, U.S. Air Force Captain Samuel J. Lewis returns home to small Rockbridge, Texas. Six years older, Sam is the boy who moved four houses down when Sarah Jordan was ten. A teenager who nicknamed her Tomboy and teased her like an older brother. That boy is now a handsome military man who makes her heart race, but what does she know of love or life? After his years away, Sam finds himself drawn to Sarah. The sassy, funny girl he used to tease has grown up into a beautiful charmer with wit and intelligence who challenges him like no other woman. Sarahs frequent reminders that shes leaving Rockbridge to attend nursing school, along with her encouragement to date other girls in town, unsettle him. During the eventful summer of 1962, their friendship grows deeper and blossoms into love. Sam knows he cant hold Sarah back from achieving her dreams. When an unexpected financial gift gives her the needed funds to enter nursing school, they face saying good-bye earlier than expected.
