

Hitting the Wall

Hitting the wall is inevitable in life and a necessary ingredient in the journey of faith. Each wall is unique and embraces such words as brokenness and pain. But each wall also carries the potential for positive change in your life. When life stops working and you lie broken and confused at the wall, this book will open your heart to a profound hope in a loving, all-knowing God. Hitting the Wall will open up a new perspective, empowering you to begin to move forward again. There is usually no quick fix at the wall. Rather, you must begin a slow, steady growth over it. This book will nourish that growth. Many words describe author David Payne. Family man. Pastor. Teacher. Historian. He is the lead and founding pastor of The Campus Church, a growing multi-site church in Aurora, Ontario. David is an experienced Bible teacher who has travelled extensively in biblical lands, studying the sites, people, and culture. He draws upon this experience as well as his own personal journey to the wall. He recounts authentic stories of woundedness and recovery that will resonate with you. You will also walk in the footsteps of biblical characters and vividly encounter their walls. David shares insights and perspectives that will help you along your faith journey when you hit that inevitable wall. A must read!
