

Rendezvous at Midnight

A haunted ocean liner, a woman with a family mystery to solve, and a man who can talk to ghosts what do they have in common? A timeless love and the very real threat of murder, that's what. Lisa, a host for the TV program Ghost at Home, and Michael, a medium also for the program, share a past together. But it remains to be seen if they have a future. When the program gets offered to spend a weekend of ghost-hunting on The Gem of the Sea, Lisa sees her chance to discover what really happened to her mother the day she died on the great ocean liner. But over the course of one passion-filled weekend, Lisa and Michael must fight a malevolence the likes of which neither has encountered before. Will they win or become two more of the unquiet spirits haunting the old ship? * * * * * Author Bio: Although Lynne writes in more than one subgenre, it's always romance. A strong believer in the happy ending, Lynne likes to explore the journey. Sometimes it's all about getting there. She has a number of publishers, but you can find all her books on her website. She lives in the UK near Manchester, with her family and a grumpy, ageing cat, Jack. She travels to the US every year and has a wonderful time with friends and colleagues. She's a member of the RNA, the HNS and a few other lettered bodies, but most of all, she sits at home and writes.
