

And I Love Her (Serenade Series) (Volume 3)

Now that Cash and Prudence have decided to get married, they must push through the obstacles together. Everyone must believe they are madly in love, but convincing them shouldn't be too hard. Still unaware of the true affection of the other person, Cash and Prudence try to tell each other the truth, but they continue to be thwarted by unsuspecting road blocks. They venture to London to tell Prudence's family about the marriage, and Cash sees first-hand what Prudence has endured. Instead of pushing Cash away because of her embarrassment and grief, she pulls him closer. Somehow, they fall more in love than they ever did. But disaster strikes again. When Gavin realizes the truth of their scam, he refuses to help. Instead, he makes sinister demands...Cash and Prudence stick to their guns and stay together as a team. But when Cash's ex comes forward with irrefutable evidence to keep them apart, they aren't sure what to do. It would be easier to break up and call off the marriage, but neither one of them wants to. So what do they do?
