

The Night Palace

They say that he is handsome beyond measure. They say that he will grant you whatever your heart may desire. They say that his skill is as wicked and delicious as sin. They say that one night with him will ruin you for any other man. When Jenna Alleyne publishes an article rubbishing the urban legend of The Night Palace and its enigmatic resident, the last thing she expects is an invitation from the man himself. With her integrity on the line and a deep curiosity desperate to be assuaged, there's really only one thing for it. She must accept the invitation and visit The Night Palace, but what lengths will she go to in order to get her story before she leaves the home of the man they call Midnight? This is a short novella of approximately 23 thousand words and contains scenes of a sexual nature.
