

The Forlorn (Dardanos, Co: The Adrastos Book 2)

A woman in search of who she was, and a purpose in a new and frightening world...She had been raised a human, but that was not what she was...Mara Garnier knew nothing of her true origins. Her mother had denied her that knowledge, raising Mara as human instead of Dardaptoan vampire. When news came that the Garnier family had to flee the human world for safety in the demon lands, Mara couldn't have been more shocked. When one of the Dardaptoan males claims Mara as his mate she is faced with a choice...accept her Dardaptoan roots or deny the man she knows she can love. Warrior. Scholar. And lover. He was all three...Rion Adrastos was an Adrastos Warrior through and through. He was also a scholar charged with chronicling the happenings in the Demon city of Thrun. It was a task he embraced. He had a purpose in the demon world and he would meet it--hopefully with his mate at his side.----The wars were coming--and the family of Warriors known as Adrastos were rising to the call. Dardanos, Co: The Adrastos novellas are spin-offs from the Dardanos, Co. series of paranormal romance.
