

The Heartbreaker

The heartbreaker is back in town. Lucki Stevenson spends most of her time coaching unruly teenagers and avoiding the unwelcome advances of a co-worker in her Parks Department job. So when all-grown-up, boy-next-door, Dr. Sam Kirk moves back into his childhood home, she doesn't hesitate welcoming him back into town and her life, as her childhood best friend, of course. Because that's all they will ever be best friends. Sam broke her heart once; she won't give him a chance to do it again. Returning home to care for his younger brother J.J., after his mother's death, Sam is happy to accept Lucki's expert advice about kids and even happier that the tomboy he remembers is now a beautiful woman. When Lucki agrees to help him with J.J., Sam is sure he's on the road to success as an instant parent, and possibly as a husband but first he's got to convince Lucki that he's not the heartbreaker of her past. In fact, he might have to get the whole town in on the act.
