

Milo had been stabbed in the back before when he was a special agent with the FBI. It nearly cost him his life. As partners you depended on each other to protect you. What happens when the person who you trusted tries to get you killed? Milo hasn't trusted anyone, but Mike and Duke since that incident. He had no choice, but to retire. Then, in walks the lovely and suspicious April. Using only his emotions, he lets her in only to find she tells him one lie after another. April Monroe is running from a secret that has her looking over her shoulder at every turn. When she started at the Blake mansion she thought she could hide amongst the trees and plain security clothes, but she was sorely mistaken. Her natural beauty and her fear were obvious to some, but most of all to Milo, one of Jackson Blake's personal security guards. Once he finds out the truth can he forgive her? Will April be able to get away from her past for good? WARNING: INSTA-LOVE!!!!
