

Shatter: Part III - Lies (Shatter Series Book 3)

She understood it now, why some people were content to live in a fantasy world. As sad and pathetic as it sounded, sometimes a lie was more attractive than the truth. When Amy met Scott, she thought finding happiness was too good to be true, but hey, she was hopeful. Now that a stalker from her past has returned, hell-bent on ending her life, she realizes happily-ever-after with Scott is just a dream. Amy should have known Nathan would never let her go, that his thirst for her blood was insatiable. She should have known she could never outrun her past, that its darkness would follow her into her new life. She had happiness, had felt it in her grasp, before it was violently ripped away. The old Amy would have run, would have abandoned the man she loved and never looked back. Except this time, she's tired of running. She's ready to fight even if it kills her. The shocking conclusion to the thrilling three-part Shatter serial. NOTE: Each part is not a standalone story.
