After Lauren caught her boyfriend, Kyle, hooking up with his secretary, she finally had it in her to call off their engagement... Shes ready to move on and have some fun, but her busy work schedule makes it hard for her to meet anyone. Marcus and Lauren always flirted some back and forth, by nothing ever came of it...until now. Marcus had always been a player, unable to settle down with one girl. No woman has yet to meet his long list of requirements, except one. Theyve known each other for a few years, working for the same company but in different locations. When Kyle comes to town for a meeting, he finds newly single Lauren anxiously awaiting his arrival. They spend a few passionate days together, assuming its just a fling. Until they realize they want more than that... But when Laurens ex-boyfriend comes back to win her affection, will Marcus be able to compete with their history?
